Merry Christmas from your Archaeolibrarians!

2020 has certainly been a different year. We hope you have found a #BookBuddy to keep you company during this crazy time.

The next newsletter will be going out on 1st February, so until then, your Archaeolibrarians wish you a Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Blessed Yule - whichever holiday you observe!

We hope it is full of love, hope, and plenty of books beneath your tree.

Take care and stay healthy!

The Lonely Vampire by Ann Greyson

This folklore horror style novel is about Ileana Vladislava, a vampire who flees Transylvania in 1578 in the midst of eradicating vampires from the region and reestablishes herself in Newcastle upon Tyne, a city in Tyne and Wear, England. Hundreds of years later, Ileana lives out a lonely existence in Wightwick Hall, a castle within the Jesmond Dene woodland valley. When Ileana sees the young and beautiful Myrna Ivester at a public library, there is something about her that sets her apart from anyone else. She decides to take a risk and transform Myrna into a vampire believing it is her destiny. With the impending threat against the vampires by Claymor, a vampire hunter in the form of a grudge bearing werewolf, the war between good and evil finds a new battlefield in Newcastle upon Tyne.

Never-DEAD by Ann Greyson

In 2012 the Maya's calendar ends with a world changing viral disease that brings the dead back to life. Hannah Winter is the head of Information technology at Biogenetics & Disease Control, a medical research company deep beneath the city of Dulce, New Mexico. Hannah is hopeful to reunite with her sister Jenna, who is struggling against all odds to travel from San Antonio, Texas to New Mexico to be with her. Julie Mehta, a staff virologist, works diligently to develop a vaccine to prevent the living from contracting the virus, in a race against time for human survival.
