

N. N. Light's Book Heaven

5 stars for Birdwatcher 2 by Ann Greyson

#paranormalthriller #thriller #horror #bookreview

Title: Birdwatcher 2

Author: Ann Greyson

Genre: Paranormal Thriller, Horror

Rating: 5 Stars | Reviewed by: Michelle

A paranormal serial killer thriller with an intriguing and spooky plot that fans of Shirley Jackson or Thomas Harris might enjoy.

Told in an omniscient perspective, the story shifts between a large cast of characters including a killer, a grieving mother, the ghost of a murdered child, a waitress, a priest, and a police detective. They all play a role in how events unfold throughout the story, and their storylines merge to paint a cohesive picture by the end.

The plotting is intricate and layered with danger and suspense that keeps you on the edge of your toes. I liked the concept of an innocuous cabin becoming the site of horrific events, and a vicious, terrifying haunting that reaches beyond physical boundaries to haunt people in their dreams. All the while, the police are hunting a volatile serial killer on the run.

Although this was the sequel to an earlier title, Birdwatcher, I had no issues following the characters and the sequences of events. I would recommend this book for fans of horror and paranormal thrillers.

N. N. Light's Book Heaven Book Review

